

Merced College

Registered Nursing

Clinical Evaluation – Fourth Semester

Name: _____

1. Facilities _____ Instructors _____ Dates _____ Clinical Absences _____	2. Facilities _____ Instructors _____ Dates _____ Clinical Absences _____
---	---

S = Satisfactory
 U = Unsatisfactory
 NO = Not Observed or No Opportunity

Successfully passing clinical is dependent on a cumulative evaluation of all objectives.
 Critical Requirements must be passed at satisfactory level by final evaluation of the current semester.

Upon completion of the clinical experience the student will be able to:

	1	Comments
	2	Mid Term (1)	Final (2)
I. Nursing Process  Assessment Establish a concise and focused preparation following review of chart, care plan, and textbooks. Be able to convey the information in both verbal and written formats.	/
 Assess client intermediate/essential need during quick introductory round at beginning of shift. Be able to explain: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ the relationship between the client's pathology, course of treatment and nursing care needs. ✓ nursing implications of lab, and diagnostic tests. ✓ medications administration and nursing implications involving multi-system relationships. ✓ analyze client coping skills 	/
Nursing Diagnosis Select, prioritize, and note nursing diagnoses on the basis of clustering and analysis of data.	/
Identify actual and potential health care needs on the basis of assessment, client prognoses, and mental status.	/
Planning Collaborate with staff, client, and faculty, in establishing goals when initiating or in updating the client's individualized care plan.	/

White: File
 Canary: Instructor
 Pink: Student

Upon completion of the clinical experience the student will be able to:

	1	Comments
	2	Mid Term (1)	Final (2)
Implementation Implement interventions based on scientific rationale and in response to client needs.	/
Demonstrate first through fourth level nursing skills.	/
Completes skills check off requirements (green card) for semester.	/
Administer medications competently.	/
Collaborate in making referrals on the basis of identified client needs and knowledge of available resources.	/
Complete discharges and referrals as appropriate.	/
Evaluation Determine the effects of nursing goals/interventions on the status of the client and revises care plans as needed.	/
Question ineffective/pot. harmful orders and secure additional medical orders as needed.	/
II. Leadership and Teamwork  Establish priorities in planning, organizing, and completing care according to the needs of 2 - 3 assigned clients.	/
Collaborate and interact appropriately with other health team members in providing and evaluating care.	/
III. Communication  Communicate verbally and in writing, client assessments and client responses to medical care.	/
 Report promptly pertinent information to appropriate health care team member and instructor. This includes absences.	/
Initiate communication with physicians and other health team members in order to share data, seek clarification of plans, or to suggest needed modifications or additions to care.	/
Utilize therapeutic communication technique to assist client and family to cope effectively.	/
IV. Client Education Inform client about his health status when appropriate.	/
Implement, and evaluate teaching plans that are specific to the client's level of development, knowledge, and learning needs.	/

Upon completion of the clinical experience the student will be able to:

	1	Comments
	2	Mid Term (1)	Final (2)
V. Professional Accountability
 Is prepared for clinical activities and aware of objectives to be accomplished.
 Utilize and integrate theoretical knowledge in delivering client care.
 Demonstrate the ability to problem solve and use the nursing process.
 Practice within the ethical and legal framework of nursing, including client confidentiality.
 Work within established school/agency goals and policies.
 Use constructive criticism and suggestions for improving nursing practice.
 Provide for physical and psychological safety of client.
Manage stress and demonstrate flexibility effectively.

