Institution Classification: Merced Community College is a member of the California Community College Athletic Association (CCCAA). The CCCAA Constitution and Bylaws prohibit athletically related student financial aid.

Federal regulations require that the following information, based on the previous reporting year, be available for inspection by students, prospective students, and the public by October 15.

- The number of male and female full-time undergraduates that attend the college
- The total amount and ratio of athletically related student aid awarded to male athletes compared to female athletes
- The expenses incurred by the college for men's and women's sports, including operating expenses
- The total annual revenue for men's and women's sports.
- The annual college salary for non-volunteer head and assistant coaches for men's and women's teams
- The number and gender of participants and coaches for men's and women's teams

Athletics Participation

This table lists the number of participants for each gender for each varsity team according to the published federal regulations regarding EADA reporting.

Participants are students who, as of the day of a varsity team's first scheduled contest

- (A) Are listed by the institution on the varsity team's roster
- (B) Receive athletically related student aid
- (C) Practice with the varsity team and receive coaching from one or more varsity coaches.

A student who satisfies one or more of these criteria is a participant, including a student on a team the institution designates or defines as junior varsity, freshman, or novice, or a student withheld from competition to preserve eligibility (i.e., a redshirt), or for academic, medical, or other reasons.
