

4D - Course Outcome #4 Competency:

d. Describe the quality improvement processes on a pediatric and medical-surgical unit used to effectively implement patient safety initiatives and monitor performance measures. Medical/Surgical John Hopkins Fall Assessment and Braden Skin Assessment performed every clinical day.

Tool: Nursing-Sensitive Quality Indicators

What are nursing sensitive quality indicators on the pediatric and medical/surgical units?	What nursing sensitive quality measures apply to your patient?	How are the nursing sensitive quality indicators measured?	What screening tools are used?	What prevention measures and precautions are implemented for your patient?
Pediatrics	PEWS Assessment
Pediatrics	Skin Assessment
Medical Surgical
Medical Surgical

Rubric for Nursing-Sensitive Quality Indicators

Performance Level	S	NI	U
Answers all questions on the tool.	Accurately answers all questions on the tool.	Able to answer some, but not all, of the questions on the tool.	Unable to accurately answer all questions on the tool.