

Merced College Looking For Host Families

January 11, 2007

Merced College English Language Institute (MCELI) “Homestay Program” is looking for host families for their international students. This is a great opportunity to exchange cultural ideas and traditions and for the international students to improve their English skills.

MCELI is dedicated to enhancing world wide educational opportunities for international students by providing quality instruction in the English language and the opportunity to learn and experience American culture. The staff of “Homestay” works closely with the students and host families to ensure a successful stay.

Host families receive $500 per month if providing meals for the student or $400 per month without meals.
