

Budget Rally and Press Conference - Nov. 24, 2008

A rally and press conference was held on the Merced Community College campus at 11:00 a.m., on November 24, 2008. In attendance were Merced College administrators, students, staff, and faculty to hear speakers and show their support for not cutting the state budget for community colleges. The speakers elaborated on the devastating effects budget cuts would have on current and future education opportunities for the state and urged all to contact their state assembly representatives to make their opposition heard.

The photos on the pages of this site may be used in your efforts to avert current and future state budget cuts for community colleges.