

CONNECT YOUR STUDENTS TO RSVP

The Relationship and Sexual Violence Prevention Program (RSVP) educates and empowers students by giving them the tools to recognize and prevent sexual violence. Please consider including the RSVP Program in your planning for Fall 2025.

IN-CLASS SERVICES:

10 Minute Overview

Covers definitions of sexual violence; introduces the on-campus advocate and outlines free services and resources for student survivors.

Workshop (Full Class Period)

Choose from three topics: Healthy Relationships, Bystander Intervention Skills, or Safety Planning.

EXTRA CREDIT OPPORTUNITIES:

Please consider offering extra credit for students to attend a workshop.

Please visit the RSVP webpage for more information about events, workshops, and sexual violence prevention, including support resources for students, faculty, and staff.
